Dear Mr McFarlane,

Thank you for attending my surgery on Saturday to ask for support for your "Give Me My Pupillary Distance Campaign".

The information you have provided me with makes it very clear that the current prescription process is out of date, and is currently hindering both consumer choice and business growth. Therefore, I am very happy to support your campaign. I have written to Mr Andy Burnham Secretary of State for Health, Mrs Nicola Sturgeon Cabinet Secretary for Health and Wellbeing (Scotland), and Lord Mandelson Head of the Office of Fair Trading and asked them to raise this matter with the General Optical Council to insure a fair deal for both consumers and businesses. I will contact you again as soon as I receive their replies.

In the meantime, if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact my constituency office on 01349 862 152.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Charles Kennedy MP
